

Save this date: November 8, 2009

What: 32nd Annual Meeting
Friends of the Immigration History Research Center,
University of Minnesota

Friends of IHRC

Date/Time/Agenda:

Sunday, November 8, 2009, 4:30–7 p.m. Mark your calendar now.

Social time: (cash wine bar)

Displays about the 2010 census of U.S. population

Meal: hors d'oeuvres/light dinner, assorted desserts and beverages

Annual Meeting (brief reports on the year's activities)

Speaker, Q & A

Where: Atrium and Room 120, Elmer L. Andersen Library, U of M West Bank
Campus (directions and parking, see www1.umn.edu/twincities/maps/EALib/)

Theme: 2010 Census: Stand Up and Be Counted!
Information about the Importance of the census, and in particular its value for documenting ethnic communities

Speaker: J. H. ("Jay") Fonkert, board-certified genealogist and president of the Minnesota Genealogical Society.
"Role of the Census in Telling Immigrant Stories"

Cost: $25 per person

Further info or tickets:

Contact Jeanette Pafko, Tel: 952-831-1440, E-mail: pafkova@aol.com

More detailed information/reservation form will be available closer to the date

To be sure you will receive the invitation, contact Jeanette

Open to everyone; reservations will be required

Please share this notice with others who may be interested in attending

Information also available at IHRC Web site: www.ihrc.umn.edu or the IHRC office, 612-625-4800

Please post or publish in ethnic newsletters