A Research Guide to Ukrainian and Carpatho-Rusyn American Newspapers, Periodicals, and Calendars-Almanacs on Microfilm, 1886–1976

Compiled by Halyna Myroniuk, Senior Assistant Curator, Immigration History Research Center, University of Minnesota, and Alexander Lushnycky, PhD

This pioneering volume is a product of the Ukrainian Microfilming Project, joint undertaking of the Immigration History Research Center at the University of Minnesota and the Shevchenko Scientific Society World Council, co-publishers.

Published 2005; a totally revised and immensely enhanced hardback edition of the 1998 pamphlet xxxviii + 394 pages, including an index to newspaper and periodical titles in Cyrillic

Entries are in English and original language if other than English (in both Cyrillic alphabet and English transliteration)

ISBN-13: 978-0-932833-17-4

Cost: $69.95 + postage and handling fees

ISBN-10: 0-932833-17-9

(see on reverse)

The major sections of the book are Part 1: Newspapers and Periodicals, including many rare items (of the 488 detailed entries and additional cross references, 61% represent complete holdings for this project) and Part 2: Calendars-Almanacs (50 detailed entries plus cross references). Entries indicate where the microfilm may be studied (some may be purchased from the IHRC; see the catalog at <www.ihrc.umn.edu/marketplace/mic4sale.htm>). Many of the entries are accompanied by illustrative sample front-page banners or cover pages that bring the titles to life.

This guide represents six years of new research to update and add to the information in the 50-page pamphlet published in 1998, A Guide to Ukrainian American Newspapers in Microform. The publications documented played a vital role in developing and maintaining immigrants' ethnic awareness. This guide is a necessary tool for researchers of the immigrant experience of Ukrainians and Carpatho-Rusyns in the United States.
